

Pollution Reduction Optimisation

Reduce your risk of financial penalties and repeat pollution incidents with the latest suite of tools from WRc, all designed for fast implementation and immediate results.

- Live robust root cause analysis of all category 1 – 4 pollution incidents
- 10 detailed review of all category 1-3 pollution incidents
- 365 accurate pollution forecasting linked to ODI's

WRc PRO combines operational experience with software, using insight to deliver outcomes. This combined approach identifies the key causal and contributory factors of pollution incidents, captures incident learning and presents key themes to business areas to prevent repeat pollution incidents and drive continuous improvement.

Utilising data from Environmental Regulator incident reporting system, and existing data collected by your organisation, WRc PRO will improve the environmental performance of your organisation by reducing the number and severity of pollutions incidents.

- No additional demand on your data / I.T. resources
- Secure, user-friendly web-based platform
- Fast, hassle-free implementation
- Range of supporting services available

In addition to a reduced risk of financial penalties, operational savings can be realised through a reduction in repeat pollution incidents. The accurate pollution forecasting provided by WRc PRO enables a targeted management and operational response.

This service is a clear demonstration of environmental commitment and will ensure enhanced reputation with customers and regulators.

For further information contact Matt Hart
Tel +44 (0)7741 385297 | Email matthew.hart@wrcplc.co.uk
WRc plc, Frankland Road, Blagrove, Swindon, Wiltshire SN5 8YF